

Teaching Elder Maranatha Chung: Philadelphia. Born and grew up in Hong Kong. Felt call to ministry while in high school. Came to the States 30 years ago. Received a B.Sc. in Electrical Engineering. M.Sc. in Electrical Engineering. Both from Texas A&M University. Worked as an engineer for 7 years. Served on the Mission Committee at Houston Chinese Church and finished the Perspectives Course. He finished a M.Div. in 2004 while interning at Tenth Presbyterian Church working with international students. Assessed for church planting in 2006. Ordained in 2008. Currently the Director of Chinese Ministry and Clerk of Session at Northeast Community Church, a multi-ethnic mission church. He finished a ThM in Church History in 2017. Since 2010, he has taught theological courses in Asia. He has served on the Credentialing Committee of the Philadelphia Presbytery. He has served on the Committee of Commissioners for the Covenant Theological Seminary (45th GA

2017), the Mission to the World (46th GA 2018), the Overtures Committee (48th GA 2021), and the PCA Foundation (51st GA 2024). Elected to be on the Nominating Committee (2021-2023, Class of 2023) and on the CMTW (Class of 2027).